Cannabis. Whatever you call it it's still against the law.

Cannabis has been reclassified from a Class B drug to a Class C drug.

Despite its reclassification, cannabis remains illegal, so it's worth remembering that you can still be arrested for possession and the drug will be confiscated in every case.

Supplying cannabis could even lead to 14 years in prison.

Cannabis impairs driving ability too, and penalties for driving under its influence include a maximum 12 month ban, up to 6 months in prison and a fine of up to £5000.
